

TENNESSEE CHILD SUPPORT EMPLOYMENT & PARENTING PROGRAM

WHAT WE DO?

We work with non-custodial parents that have a court order to pay child support to help them overcome barriers to employment & life.

WHAT TYPE OF BARRIERS DO WE HELP ADDRESS?

Employment, lack of job skills and/or education, substance abuse, housing issues, transportation issues, mental/ physical health problems.

WHO TO CALL

TO BE ELIGIBLE YOU MUST

- Be unemployed or under-employed, or having difficulty meeting child support obligations
- Be 18 or older
- Be a non-custodial parent
- Ability to attend in person appointments in one of the service counties
- Agree to pay child support and participate in program activities that will increase employment and earnings and responsible parenting practices

OTHER SERVICES

- Job leads
- Resume writing
- Completing applications
- Interview preparation
- Computer help
- Links to community resources

COUNTIES WE SERVICE

Anderson, Blount, Bradley, Campbell, Claiborne, Clay, Cocke, Cumberland, DeKalb, Fentress, Grainger, Jefferson, Knox, Loudon, McMinn, Meigs, Monroe, Morgan, Overton, Pickett, Polk, Putnam, Roane, Scott, Sevier, Union, and White

Anderson County

Elizabeth Vickers, 865-985-1692

This program is funded through a partnership between:

